Eō! Calling all kids ages 9 to 12

The 5 national parks on the island of Hawai'i are joining together to create an adventure book just for kids. We need your help! If you are 9 to 12 years old, we are having a contest and need original artwork highlighting something special about the national parks in Hawai'i. The winning works of art will be used in the new Hawai'i Island Junior Ranger Adventure Book. (See contest details below)

Have you visited the national parks on the island of Hawai'i or read about them in books? What impressed you about the parks? Perhaps you saw heiau (Hawaiian temple made of stones), a honu (sea turtle) resting on a warm beach, an `apapane (native Hawaiian Honeycreeper) sipping sweet nectar from an `ohi`a lehua blossom, lava flowing into the ocean from Kilauea Volcano, or a large fishpond filled with mullet.

We want you to take those special memories and design the cover of our new book, Hawai'i Island Junior Ranger Adventure Book. The design should showcase the Hawai'i Island national parks. You could be one of twenty (20) winners. The top winner's artwork will grace the cover of the new book and custom-made patch. All winners will receive a cash award of $100 for themselves and $100 for their school's art program. Other winning artwork may be published in the Hawai'i Island Junior Ranger Adventure Book.
