John Keawe LIVE in Concert

December 16th, 7:00 pm
Kīlauea Visitor Center
Auditorium

Cool December nights are a time of celebration. Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park is proud to welcome back kiho`alu (slack-key) guitarist, composer and recording artist, John Keawe for a special concert on Kīlauea. John is a native of the island of Hawai'i. He is a self-taught slack-key guitarist with numerous recordings to his credit as well as multiple Na Hoku Hanohano and Hawaii Music awards recipient and a contributing artist on Hawaii's 1st Grammy award in 2005. Auditorium doors open at 6:30pm. This program is expected to be well attended so come early for seating. John's CDs and DVDs will be available for purchase the evening of the performance. This program featuring John and Hope Keawe's lovely music and hula was produced by the University of Hawai'i-Mānoa Outreach College's Statewide Cultural Extension Program.

Program co-sponsored by Hawai'i Pacific Parks Association. For information, call (808) 985-6011.
