

Roosevelt Farm & Forest TRAIL MAP

Trail Descriptions

Roosevelt Farm Lane is about 1.8 miles long end to end. The trail passes through a variety of upland and wetland habitats, including a bridge over the Maritje Kill. The surface is gravel and the route is smooth but with some steep hills and curves. The lane is blazed with the green-and-white Hyde Park Trail markers.

There are three additional trails marked with paint blazes: Red Trail, Yellow Trail and Blue Trail. Unlike Roosevelt Farm Lane, these trails are narrow and rough in spots. The footing can be uneven and steep.
