1. "Men and nature must work hand in hand. The throwing out of balance of the resources of nature throws out of balance also the lives of men." FDR
2. "A nation that destroys its soil destroys itself. Forests are the lungs of our land, purifying and giving strength to our people." FDR
3. "There is nothing so American as our national parks. The scenery and the wildlife are native. The fundamental idea behind the parks is native. It is, in brief, that the country belongs to all people, that it is in the process of making for the enrichment of the lives of all of us. The parks stand as the outward symbol of the great human principle." FDR
4. "Perhaps nature is our best assurance of immortality."
Eleanor Roosevelt
5. "...conservation of land and conservation of people frequently go hand in hand."
Eleanor Roosevelt
6. "It seems to me of great importance to teach children respect for life. Towards this end, experiments on living animals in classrooms should be stopped. To encourage cruelty in the name of science can only destroy the finer emotions of affection and sympathy, and breed an unfeeling callousness in the young towards suffering in all living creatures."
Eleanor Roosevelt
