

Join Roosevelt-Vanderbilt NHS for a Presentation with Wildlife Rehabilitator Rusty Johnson:

TV Personality, Producer, Author, Amazon Jungle Guide

Come and listen to Rusty's tales of his explorations in the Amazon, meet some of the wildlife he is currently rehabilitating, and learn about the effects of climate change on wildlife here in the U.S. and in the Amazon.

Date: June 25, 2016

Time: 3:00—4:30

Where: Roosevelt-Vanderbilt NHS
At the Wallace Visitor
& Education Center
Hyde Park, NY 12538

Rusty Johnson was the main character, consulting producer, and originator of The Travel Channel's HOTEL AMAZON. He has conducted 25 expeditions into the Amazon to film, guide, and deliver malaria nets, medicine, and toys to the children of the jungle .

He has consulted for National Geographic Television's HOOKED, the Discovery Channel, and his footage of wildlife on his Amazon preserve is in Reader's Digest "Must See Places on Earth" DVD Series. He filmed on the island of Kauai for the documentary series Cosmic Journeys. He has appeared on the Today Show and has presented over 3,000 lectures at educational institutions .

To make reservations and print out your free ticket go to:

Eventbrite

For more information contact Susanne Norris at 845-229-6873

*In case of severe weather please call the park number for closures at 845-229-9115