

Traditions Festival

Join the National Park Service at Homestead National Monument of America's Education Center for a celebration of many cultures with music and dance. Admission to the park and this event are free. Food will be available for purchase from Rivercity Smokehouse.

Sunday
September 13
Noon - 6:00 p.m.

- | | |
|-------|--|
| 12:00 | Kumbe (Colombian Dancers) |
| 12:30 | Native Clan American Indian Dancers |
| 1:00 | Rueben Kent American Indian Flute Music |
| 1:30 | Asian Lion Dancers |
| 2:00 | Lincoln Irish Dancers |
| 2:30 | Sangre Azteca (Mexican Folkloric Dance) |
| 3:00 | Northeast Family Center's Academy of Rock (Youth Classic Rock Band) |
| 3:30 | Allon Chapel Gospel Choir |
| 4:00 | Executive Steel Drum Band |
| 4:30 | African Drumming with Michael Opoku |
| 5:00 | Ashanti African Band |
| 5:30 | Travel to Nevelone Center for Performing Arts in Beatrice for a Preview of Ken Burns documentary "National Parks: America's Best Idea" |

Event co-sponsored by:
Nebraska Educational
Telecommunications

