

Volunteer at Harry S Truman National Historic Site

Harry S Truman Home, Independence, Missouri

In Brief

Harry S Truman National Historic Site opened to the public on May 15, 1984. Today, the National Park Service preserves and interprets the home of President Truman. Completed in 1885 by Mrs. Truman's grandparents, the fourteen room Victorian house provided a home to four generations of the family. Visitors experience the home as it was during the time Harry S Truman and his wife, Bess Wallace Truman, lived there. Upon her death in 1982, Mrs. Truman bequeathed the home to the people of the United States, and it is now a unit within the National Park System

Our Mission

To promote, create and maintain long-term stewardship and support for the park resources by:

- Fortifying park programs through the use of volunteers in a manner which complements basic park resources to better accomplish the park mission.
- Providing an enriching and diverse work experience for participating volunteers.

The National Park Service Volunteers-In-Parks (VIP) Program was authorized (by Public Law (91-357) in 1970.

The primary purpose of the VIP program is to provide a vehicle through which the National Park Service can accept and utilize voluntary help and services from the public.

The major objective of the program is to utilize this voluntary help in such a way that is mutually beneficial to the National Park Service and the volunteer. Volunteers are accepted from the public without regard to race, creed, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, or disability.

About our Volunteers

Volunteering is an American tradition that over the years has made immeasurable contributions to communities, organizations and individuals throughout the country. A recent poll found that over one-third of the American public has been or are now volunteers. Over half of those presently involved in volunteer work are also employed in full or part-time jobs. Today's volunteers are active, dynamic, creative individuals of all ages who possess the skills, desire, patience and time to accomplish a wide variety of tasks.

Park volunteers come from every state and around the world to help preserve and protect America's natural and cultural heritage for the enjoyment of this and future generations.

National Park Service volunteers are, without a doubt, Very Important People! Each year more than 163,000 volunteers donate over 5.4 million hours of service to the National Park Service.
