THEY CAPTURE THE CLEVER ONE

And Thereby Children of the "Neighborhood Gang" Collect Reward of $10.45 For Penny Ice Fund.

Real thrills and lots of good humor prevailed in the original play "The Capture of the Clever One," presented by the "Neighborhood Gang" on the lawn at the home of Senator and Mrs. Harry Truman, 219 North Delaware Street, last night before an interested audience of parents and friends. A sum of $10.40 was realized from the sale of tickets and this will go to the Penny Ice Fund.

The play, which was written by Betty Ogden of Joplin, Mo., who is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Graves, gave each youngster an important part to perform. Each actor had her lines perfectly. The only hitch in the entire production was when one of the actors accidentally stepped on little Barbara Allen's balloon dog in getting off the stage after the second act. Barbara used the dog as her dance partner in a stunt between acts, which brought down the house.

The other performers were: Marie Allen, Margaret Truman, Mona Jean Allen, Elizabeth and Virginia Bush, Jane Berridge, Jean Rucker, Ruth Mary Cogswell, Elizabeth Rees and Helen Robertson.

Where are you going, little one?
"To a backward party on the run,

At Helen Robertson's it will be
And she wants you to come with me.

Wear your clothes hind part before,
Come right in at the back door.

Saturday, the seventh of September,
Ten 'til two--you'll remember?

And you will kindly let her know
Whether your answer is 'Yes' or 'No'."

ENTERTAINED WITH A "BACKWARD PARTY"

Helen Robertson, 218 North Delaware Street entertained a number of her friends with a "backward party" last Saturday from 10 to 2. The girls wore their dresses backward and all came in at the rear door. They played games backward and prizes were given for the most backward players. In the games Betty Ogden was the most backward and the prize for the one most "backward dressed" went to Dorsey Lou Compton. At luncheon the desert was served first. Those who attended were, Cleo Clare Cudworth, Jane Barridge, Dorothy Dean Robison, Elizabeth and Virginia Bush, Charnelsie Dillingham, Wilma Geary, Louis Elaine and Gay Feldbahl, Shirley Ann Vardemann, Betty Ogden, Mona Jean Allen, Margaret Truman, Dorsey Lou and Lucy Jane Compton, Jean Rucker, Elizabeth Rees and Ruthmary Cogswell.

Marg's having a party, kids
On Saturday afternoon at Two
So we're sending out these bids
As she's counting on having you
Come dressed as a pirate bold
Prepared to hunt the chest of gold
So LET us know if all's okay
