June 27 – July 5 – Celebrating Independence

Officer’s Candidate School (for Kids). If you want to be an officer in the Continental Army enroll in the IVC between 8:30 and 1:30. You will be given an assignment that will take you throughout the park and require you to solve problems to prove your worth to the Army. Finish all the steps in your assignment and report to New Hall Military Museum at 12:30 or 3:30 for a commissioning ceremony and drill. There you will learn to drill with your fellow recruits under the tutelage of a Ranger/Soldier. Finally, if you pass muster, you will receive a hand printed commission, issued by the Continental Congress, showing your new rank.

“Committee of Five” walking tour all tours begin in front of Carpenter’s Hall at 2:30 (one hour)

John Adams Walking Tour (Sat 6/27, Tues 6/30, and Fri. 7/3 only) follow one of the key figures in the Continental Congress through the early war up to the writing of the Declaration of Independence.

Thomas Jefferson Walking Tour (Sun 6/28, Wed. 7/1, Sat. 7/4 only) Follow the main author of the Declaration of Independence through the places where he worked on the creation of the new nation.

The Forgotten Members of the Committee of Five (Mon. 6/29, Thurs 7/2, and Sun 7/5 only) learn about two of the unsung creators of the United States, Roger Sherman and Robert Livingston, and how they worked with the other Committee members to craft the Declaration of Independence.

Today in History - A short ranger led discussion about the events of “This Day in 1776”. As we wrap up the activities of each day, we will discuss the aspects of creating the Declaration of Independence and fighting a war for the new nation. Meet the ranger at 6:30 at the John Barry Statue (behind Independence Hall).
