Public Q&A Session on Visitation and Security Proposal

Independence National Historical Park (INHP) invites all interested members of the public to join us on Thursday, February 1, 2007, for a Question and Answer session on the recently released proposal for visitation and security at Independence Hall and the Liberty Bell.

What: Public Q&A Session on INHP visitation and security proposal
Where: Independence Visitor Center, 6th and Market Streets
When: February 1, 2007, 5:00 pm – 7:00 pm

A Finding of No Significant Impact (FONSI) detailing the park's plans for moving forward on visitation and security measures was released for public review on Wednesday, January 24, 2007. It will be open for public comment until Friday, February 23, 2007. This draft decision document is available on the INHP website, http://www.nps.gov/inde/management_documents, or on the NPS planning website, <http://parkplanning.nps.gov>. It is also available in hard copy at the park headquarters, 143 S. 3rd St, Philadelphia, PA 19106.

The format for this meeting will include a brief overview of the proposal, from 5:00 – 5:15 pm, with the remaining time available for questions and answers.

All members of the press and public are invited to come to this public session.
