

Indiana Dunes National Park Volunteer Service Description

---

Chellberg Farm Crew Goat Care

Minimum Commitment

Once a week. Throughout the year.

Goal / Outcome of Job:

To help optimize animal welfare, health status, and feeding at Chellberg Farm.

Description of Duties

- Feeds and waters goats according to feeding instructions and established schedules.
- Helps maintain stall cleanliness.
- Observes animals to identify signs of injury, illness, or disease.
- An optional duty would be helping with goat deworming and hoof trimming which happens approximately every 2 months.

Knowledge/ Skills Desired

- Ability to work with animals.
- Ability to follow instructions.

Difficulty

Average to Strenuous. Requires a combination of working in hot and cold weather, carrying some equipment and hay or straw bales.

Working Conditions:

Work is performed outdoors during the year at Chellberg Farm.

Training / Preparation Required:

- Mandatory training will be provided.
- If you get injured on the job, contact your volunteer supervisor. If you need help, call 1-800-PARK-TIP to report the situation.

Uniform

- Volunteer uniform is required.