

Indiana Dunes National Park Volunteer Service Description

Chellberg Farm Crew Turkey Care

Position Overview

The turkey caretaker will assist with the care of turkeys at Chellberg Farm.

Minimum Commitment

Once a week late spring through the fall season.

Goal / Outcome of Job:

To help optimize animal welfare, health status, and feeding at Chellberg farm.

Description of Duties

- Feeds and waters turkeys according to feeding instructions and established schedules.
- Helps maintain turkey pen cleanliness.
- Observes animals to identify signs of injury, illness, or disease.

Knowledge/ Skills Desired

- Ability to work with animals.
- Ability to follow instructions.

Difficulty

Average to Strenuous. Requires a combination of working in hot and cold weather carrying some equipment.

Working Conditions:

Work is performed outdoors during the year at Chellberg Farm.

Training / Preparation Required:

- Mandatory training will be provided.
- If you get injured on the job, contact your volunteer supervisor. If you need help call 1-800-PARK-TIP to report the situation.

Uniform

- Volunteer uniform is required.