Mammals of Barataria:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Species</th>
<th>Habitat/Range</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Virginia Opossum</td>
<td>Common in all wooded areas.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Southeastern Myotis Bat</td>
<td>Preserve is within range.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Eastern Pipistrelle Bat</td>
<td>Preserve is within range.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Red Bat</td>
<td>Preserve is within range.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Seminole Bat</td>
<td>Confirmed in Preserve.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Northern Yellow Bat</td>
<td>Preserve is within range.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Evening Bat</td>
<td>Preserve is within range.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rafinesque’s Big-eared Bat</td>
<td>Preserve is within range.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brazilian Free-tailed Bat</td>
<td>Preserve is within range.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nine-banded Armadillo</td>
<td>Abundant on higher ground. Often abroad during daylight, especially in cold weather.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Swamp Rabbit</td>
<td>Very common except in densest forest.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gray Squirrel</td>
<td>Most commonly encountered mammal in the Preserve.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Southern Flying Squirrel</td>
<td>Probably common, but completely nocturnal.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Marsh Rice Rat</td>
<td>Common in marsh and swamp.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fulvous Harvest Mouse</td>
<td>Preserve is within range.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>White-footed Mouse</td>
<td>Common in wooded areas.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cotton Mouse</td>
<td>Preserve is within range.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hispid Cotton Rat</td>
<td>Preserve is within range.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Animal</td>
<td>Status/Location</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>--------------------------------</td>
<td>---------------------------------------------------------------------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Eastern Wood Rat (Pack Rat)</td>
<td>Uncommon in hardwoods.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Common Muskrat</td>
<td>Uncommon to occasionally common in marsh where three-square sedge grows.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>House Mouse</td>
<td>Introduced. Common on higher ground, especially around buildings.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nutria</td>
<td>Introduced. Common in swamp, abundant in marsh areas.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>American Beaver</td>
<td>Extirpated from the delta, but not making a comeback in the Preserve.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Atlantic Bottle-nosed Dolphin</td>
<td>A rare visitor to Lake Salvador &amp; Bayou Barataria after storms.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Red Wolf</td>
<td>Extirpated.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Coyote</td>
<td>Coyote-like wild canids recently invaded the Preserve. It is probable that these are actually Coyote/Red wolf hybrids.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gray Fox</td>
<td>A few recent unconfirmed sightings.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>American Black Bear</td>
<td>Extirpated.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Northern Raccoon</td>
<td>Abundant, utilizing all habitats.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>North American Mink</td>
<td>Common in wetland areas.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nearctic River Otter</td>
<td>Fairly common in wetland areas, around permanent water.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cougar</td>
<td>Extirpated.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bobcat</td>
<td>A few recent unconfirmed sightings.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>White-tailed Deer</td>
<td>Common throughout the Preserve.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bison</td>
<td>Extirpated.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wild Boar</td>
<td>Introduced, occasional.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>