

The Wonderful J.F.K.

PT-109. Japanese destroyer tore his ship in half.
Two men died, Jack was hurt. One man injured.
He saved an injured crewmate. He swam to an island.
Wrote a message on a coconut. They were rescued!
Brave, strong, and courageous.
JFK teaches us that if/when you're in trouble,
you should try to find help, and also help other people in need.

Peace Corps was about helping other countries.
Watering plants, teaching people how to help their country,
teaching children.
JFK wanted to help other people around the world.
Thoughtful, helpful, trustworthy.
JFK teaches us to help others learn new things and teaches us to learn about others.

Russia had already sent a man into outer space.
Jack wants a US citizen to be the first to land on the moon.
Jack was successful.
Competitive, creative, ambitious.
JFK teaches us to never give up on our dreams.

JFK wanted segregation to stop.
He believed segregation was unfair.
People were treated differently because of their skin color.
He believed that everyone was equal.
Equal, fair, loving.
JFK teaches us not to judge people by their race or color.

JFK believed that all people should have the best schools – good teachers and materials.
If you don't get a good education you will not be able to learn new things.
His father told him, "When the going gets tough –
the tough get going."
He learned to get serious about school.
Positive, caring, serious.
JFK teaches us that education is the key to knowledge and accomplishment.
