What JFK Means to Me

Zack Yosset

Being part of a big family can be good and bad. The kennedy family had nine children. John F. Kennedy learned alot of lessons from his Family.

Jack's mother was important to the Kennedys! Rose wanted her kids to talk about the world at the dinner table. Rose wanted her kids to know church is not only for sunday it's for every day. Rose wanted John to wear a hat even on a hot day Because John was often sick. when Jack was sick his mother wanted Jack to read alot.

Jack's Father was also important to the kennedys! Joe, Sr wanted his Family to be competitive. Joe, Sr only wanted winners in his family. Joe, Sr said second place is not good. Joe, Sr said to John "aren't you foolish not to get all there is out of what god has given you?" Jack's Family was important to Jack. When JFK was running for President his whole family helped him run for the Job. JFK's whole Family helped alot because there were so many of them. JFK wanted BOBBY's help all the time BOBBY was his younger brother. BOBBY became his main advisor then he made him his Attorney general so he could all ways help JFK. These are some of the was JFK's Family suppoted him when he was electel president. Even though the kenneay Family had alot of deaths and sadness they were always there for each other.
