

Alta California Here We Come!

Pre & Post Quiz

Juan Bautista de Anza National Historic Trail

1. The Juan Bautista de Anza Expedition traveled during the years of _____ 2005-2007 1775-1776 1801-1810
2. The expedition traveled from Mexico to _____
Texas New York California
3. Anza's expedition traveled to California to build a fort at San Francisco.
True False
4. Members of the expedition traveled by _____
Car & Train Horse & foot Wagon train
5. The Anza expedition traveled _____ miles.
1640 75 300
6. During the journey, they received help from Native American Indians.
True False
7. Juan Bautista de Anza was the military commander of the expedition.
True False
8. A _____ was created by Father Pedro Font to remember the history of the journey.
Movie Written diary CD-DVD
9. There were about _____ people and _____ animals on the long march to California.
300 & 1000 25 & 100 2000 & 5000
10. The Anza expedition traveled for about _____
7 days 5 years 8 months

11. The expedition members included:

- Spanish soldiers
- Women & children
- Indians
- Mexicans
- All of the above

12. The Native American Indians helped as _____ on the expedition:

- Soldiers Guides Priests

13. June 27, 1776, the expedition reached their destination at San Francisco, and began building _____

- Bridge Presidio Grocery store

14. The Anza Trail is an important part of the _____ history.

- South America Canada American Southwest

15. During the 8 months of travel :

- Most of the members did not survive.
- 8 babies were born and one person died.
- Expedition never found California.

16. Chief Palma and the Yuma Indians welcomed the expedition, and gave the expedition food, and shelter, but did not help the expedition in crossing the Colorado River.

- True False

17. When the expedition camped in the California desert named Borrego Springs, the weather was _____

- Very hot Snowy & cold

18. The purpose of the Anza expedition was to _____

- Discover gold Colonize California for Spain War with the Indians

19. The success of the expedition enabled more people to travel and settle in California.

- True False

20. Today, the Juan Bautista de Anza National Historic Trail can be visited, including walking, driving, camping and seeing historical sites.

- True False