ALASKAN YOUTH CONSERVATION CREWS

Join an Alaskan or Alaska Native Conservation Crew

Spend part of your summer in the great outdoors in one of SCA's Alaska Native Conservation Crews. Alaskan High School students age 15-19 qualify to join teams that spend part of their summer hiking and camping, completing conservation projects and learning leadership skills. Make new friends and challenge yourself while learning things like how to protect critical habitats, build a hiking or OHV trail and preserve our state's precious natural resources. So get outside and make this summer an adventure!

- High School Students age 15–19
- Crews include 6-8 members who serve for 3-5 weeks in the summer (June, July or August)
- Each Crew Member is supervised by two experienced adult Crew Leaders
- Members live in tents and cook their own meals
- $250 - $500 Living Stipend
