

Mai Property 1940

Rendering of North Elevation, c.1973

Southeast View, 2004

Period of Significance Considered: 1944-1958

National Register Criterion Considered: A, B, C

Finding: Determined ineligible for listing in the National Register due to:

Criterion A:

There does not appear to be a significant event or settlement pattern associated with this building.

Criterion B:

No significant individuals were associated with the Mai Property during the period of significance.

Criterion C:

The Mai Property does not embody distinctive characteristics of a type, period, or method of construction, the work of a master or possess high artistic value.

Integrity:

The Mai Property lacks sufficient historic integrity due to exterior alterations or removal of the character defining features. Specifically, changes to the massing, roof form, window style, material, size and location, the addition of a door and porch and different siding type.
