

Fourth Thursday In History

Honoring Eagle Harbor Lifesavers

January 28th 7:00 PM

Eagle River Community Center,
5049 4th Street, Eagle River, Michigan

Mark Rowe of the Keweenaw County Historical Society will provide an overview of the history of the US Life-Saving Service and Coast Guard at Station Eagle Harbor. Mark will also discuss the historical society's current efforts to preserve the boathouse and associated artifacts.

Historic Home Movies

February 25th 7:00 PM

Keweenaw NHP Headquarters
25970 Red Jacket Road, Calumet, Michigan

Grab your popcorn and join us to view historic home movies of the Keweenaw Peninsula from the 1930s through 1960s. These short clips include footage of parades, mine sites, scenery and Isle Royale. Park Archivist, Jeremiah Mason, will also talk about how to properly store your home movies.

Searching Your Family's History

March 25th 7:00 PM

Carnegie Museum
401 Montezuma Ave., Houghton, Michigan

Join members of the Houghton-Keweenaw County Genealogy Society as they describe how to dive deeper into discovering your family genealogy through immigration, census and mining work records.

Fourth Thursday in History is a series of presentations on topics related to local or regional history. All programs are free and open to the public. For further information, including directions or site accessibility, contact Keweenaw National Historical Park at (906) 337-3168 or visit us on the web at www.nps.gov/kewe.
