

Lava Beds National Monument

Bats of Lava Beds: Student Log Sheet

NAME: _____ DATE: _____

1. Another word for a baby bat is a _____.

2. A maternity colony is

_____

3. Echolocation is

_____

4. Hibernation is when

_____

5. A roost is

_____

6. The _____ bat usually roosts (rests)

in these places: _____

7. Does this bat hibernate? (circle one) YES or NO

8. This bat can weigh _____ to _____ grams.

9. One gram is about the weight of one big paper clip. Count out the number of paper clips your bat would weigh if it was the least heavy. Hold them in your hand. Do you think this is heavy?

_____

10. Count out the number of paper clips your bat would weigh at its heaviest. Hold them in your hand. Do you think this is heavy?

_____

11. The shortest length of this bat is ____ cm long. The longest length of this bat is ____ cm long.

12. Draw a line below that shows the longest length this bat can be. Mark the shortest length this bat can be.

13. Shade in 4 states in North America that this bat lives in

14. This bat usually eats:

---