

Lava Beds National Monument Find Your Adventure

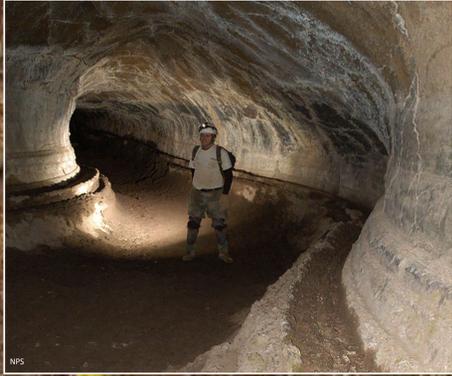

Above

Learn about the rich history of the Modoc people, hike through the rugged beauty of the high desert, and see the night sky as never before.

Below

Experience a new world as you explore one of the many lava tube caves. From first time cavers to experienced veterans, opportunities abound and adventure awaits.

The Tule Lake Unit preserves the history of one of ten War Relocation Authority centers where people of Japanese ancestry living on the west coast of the United States were incarcerated during WWII.

Segregation Center

Delve into the history of injustice experienced in America during WWII. Learn about the lives many people were forced to lead behind barbed wire fences.

Camp Tulelake

Hear the echoes of history among buildings originally used by the Civilian Conservation Corps and the voices of others confined behind their walls.

Visiting Lava Beds National Monument

We encourage you to stop at the visitor center when you first arrive. Park highlights are colorfully described by exhibits and information regarding recreational opportunities, road conditions, and upcoming events is available.

Lava Beds National Monument
 1 Indian Well Headquarters
 Tulelake, CA 96134
 530-667-8113
www.nps.gov/labe

The visitor center is open daily
 8:30-5:00 in the winter and
 8:00-6:00 in the summer.

Visiting the Tule Lake Unit

Come by the Tule Lake Unit Visitor Center located in the Tulelake-Butte Valley Fairgrounds Museum in Tulelake, CA. Talk to a ranger, explore the local history museum, or take a tour offered weekly in the summer. Special tours are available if scheduled two weeks in advance, staffing permitting.

Tule Lake Unit
 800 Main Street
 Tulelake, CA 96134
 530-260-0537 (Summer)
 530-667-8113 (Winter)
www.nps.gov/tule

The visitor center is open daily in the summer 8:30-5:00.

