

November Saturday Hikes

The National Park Service is presenting a variety of guided hikes and programs throughout November. Hikes and programs will occur at different times and locations in Lake Mead National Recreation Area. For more information and reservations call the Lake Mead Visitor Center at 702.293.8990 between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Reservations are required on all hikes. Please leave your dogs at home.

Saturday, November 3 Liberty Bell Arch

Traverse a narrow wash through ancient riverbeds past the remains of a World War II-era mine. View a natural arch created by wind and water on the way to Black Canyon Overlook. This is a moderate six-mile hike.

Saturday, November 3 Bowl of Fire

Observe the spectacular colors of the rocks as you wander among a variety of Aztec sandstone formations that are scattered through the Bowl of Fire. This is a moderate to strenuous four-mile hike.

Saturday, November 10 Anniversary Narrows

Hike up Lovell Canyon to the remains of an abandoned town site and borax mine. Continue on to a scenic canyon, aptly named The Narrows. This is a moderate three-mile hike. Four-wheel drive is required to get to the trailhead of this hike.

Saturday, November 17 Railroad Tunnel Trail

Follow the route of the old Boulder Dam supply train through several tunnels. Along the way, learn about the lives, hardships and accomplishments of the workers who tamed the Colorado River. This is an easy five-mile hike.

Anniversary Narrows

Saturday, November 17 Fortification Hill

This hike is up Boulder Basin's most imposing mountain with multicolored, 2,000-foot-high cliffs that overlook Lake Mead. Four-wheel drive is required to get to the trailhead of this strenuous four-mile round trip hike.

Saturday, November 24 Nature Walk

Hike into a wash community and explore the abundant natural history of the area. Bring a camera for a scenic shot and binoculars to catch a glimpse of the wildlife in the area on this easy two-mile hike.
