Unauthorized Volunteer Work

Senior Project

Designed, built, and ran an impromptu skateboard park from 12-2 a.m. every other Saturday at First National Bank Plaza. It took 36 hours to build with the help of my friends. All ramps were installed with care and protection of not destroying the cement sculptures and fountains. I received an A on the project until Police Chief Wiggum found out about it. Then he made me take it down (2.5) hours and do community service work where I had to walk Mayor Quimby's dogs.
