Recalling weddings back in India, artist and educator Krina Patel talks about the sumptuous food that is central to Hindu weddings. Lord Ganesha, the harbinger of all things good and sweet, presides over each of these weddings. Krina, who started the "Stir a Memory" project, will discuss Indian wedding foods, specific ingredients that are used, and related art rituals. She will have samples of a typical wedding food to taste.

After showing clips of celebration scenes from a few Bollywood films, we will screen Monsoon Wedding, the 2001 feature film directed by Mira Nair.

The Lowell Folklife Series - spreading the spirit of the Lowell Folk Festival throughout the year. For more info visit www.nps/lowe or call Maggie Holtzberg (978)-275-1719.
