WHEN A FLOWER BLOOMS

When a flower blooms a friendship blooms,
When a friendship blooms love blooms.
Love brings tolerance and creates peace,
Equal rights feed peace and love.
Let us surround the world with peace,
Love and flowers.

Deniz Sezer, Grade 4
Atlanta International School

LOVE, HOPE, PEACE

LOVE, is what brought us TOGETHER,
HOPE, is what we have for everyone's DREAMS,
PEACE, is what we want for our CHILDREN,
And Martin Luther King INSPIRED it in us all.

Ansley Toledano, Grade 4
Atlanta International School

PEACE

Peace is happy things
Like hugging, kissing
And saying I love you.

Rafi Perez, Kindergarten
Atlanta International School

DR. KING

A bee likes to sting
And so do the words of Dr. King
“Let Freedom Ring!”
He made our hearts sing
For blacks and whites
So not one fight
Let freedom ring
To honor Dr. King

Demarious Howard, Grade 6
B.E.S.T. Academy

BECAUSE HE WAS...I CAN

Because of Dr. Martin L. King Jr.,
I can sit wherever I want at the circus.
I can shop in any store.
I can help people learn to read.
Thank you Dr. Martin L. King Jr.

Junior Vasquez, Kindergarten
G. A. Towns Elementary School

OF PEACE AND ROSES

Peace grows like a rose;
Imperceptible and faint.
Nestled underground.
Peace blooms like a rose
Bursting loudly from the stem,
Hidden catalyst.
Peace is like a rose,
Sweet and fragrant and sublime,
Enamoring all.

Janay Terry, Grade 8
Georgia Virtual Academy

CREATE MIRACLES

Ordinary people can do extraordinary things
With weapons of love and help from above
Replace superiority with equality
Daring with caring
Humiliation with jubilation
Let the power of words prevail

Chani Warga, Grade 7
Georgia Virtual Academy

PEACE

Peace is like a growing seed
Spreading it is what we need
Peace is something the world should share
It is about love and care
In order to spread peace to everyone else
You must first learn to love yourself.

Angelita Hughley, Grade 4
Herndon Elementary School

Winning Inspirational Messages of Peace 2009

LOVE ONE ANOTHER

Love everybody
Peace. War
Broken parts. Broken Hearts
Sad. Killing people
Thanking you Dr. King
For helping us to start
Loving people
Peace

Mya Crawford & Tanisha Payne, Kindergarten
Herndon Elementary School

PEACE AND LOVELINESS

He changed our everything
He who is called Martin Luther King
Changed the way we love, see and think
Now we all may live together
Birth to death
In peace and loveliness

Maya Pines, Grade 6
Inman Middle School

PEACE

Peace
Peace is joyful; really good
You should try if you could
Peace will help you to relax
Please just try it
It'll make you glad

Aranza Frutos, Grade 5
John Hope Elementary School

PEACE AND LOVE

Martin Luther King
Sent peace to this world.
He had a dream,
His little children wouldn't be judged
By the color of their skin
But by their character.
He made this world a better world
For you and me.

Kailen Avery, Grade 4
John Hope Elementary School

CORETTA SCOTT KING

A child of segregation, grew up to be a leader
She's a gift, a shining star,
An inspiration who continued a dream.
She's like a shining beam,
Straight from heaven and down to my dreams.

Jenny Pham, Grade 5
Martin Luther King, Jr. Elementary School

THE DREAM

To live in peace
Not to be judged by my color
To bring love and happiness to our world
That is the dream

Kevin Jackson, Grade 3
Martin Luther King, Jr. Elementary School

DR. KING = PEACE

Dr. King was a man of peace
He wanted discrimination to cease
With his words
He did his best
To put racism to rest
Now we're put to the same test

David James, Grade 7
St. Peter Claver Regional Catholic School

THE PEACE POEM

Peace is love, silence, conscience
Love is when you like something so much
Silence is when you feel good
And listen to the ocean
Conscience is when you listen to your mind
And do good.

Kimberly Ongoma, Grade 3
St. Peter Claver Regional Catholic School

NO MORE WAR

We don't need WAR
We need PEACE
Children around the world need to increase
Do you want war? I surely don't!
Soldiers are strong
Give up they won't
Yet people are mad because WAR is bad
I hope for PEACE to increase!

Cederrius Hastings, Grade 3
Susie B. Atkinson Elementary School
