

Free Teachers Workshop

Enhancing Regional Perspectives on the WWII Incarceration of Japanese Americans

In what ways did place determine the fates of people of Japanese ancestry after the bombing of Pearl Harbor?

Saturday, October 17, 2015

10:00 am - 3:30 pm

Join an informative and dynamic exchange about the incarceration of Japanese Americans across the Pacific West. Utilizing a regional perspective, we expand Manzanar's "One Camp, 10,000 Lives; One Camp, 10,000 Stories" theme to draw deeper conclusions and understanding of how and why this injustice took place. Case studies will compare pre- and post-war communities in Hawaii, Seattle, and California.

Workshop location: Manzanar National Historic Site, 5001 Highway 395, Independence, CA.

Participant Benefits

- Quality content lectures and curriculum demonstrations on Japanese-American internment
- Extensive complementary curricula designed to meet CCSS and 3C Framework and other teaching resources
- Mid-morning snacks and lunch
- Ranger-guided tour of Manzanar
- $75 stipend for teachers who complete workshop reflections and evaluation

Please send in Application (on back) by Oct. 10, 2015:

Email: patricia_biggs@nps.gov
Mail: Manzanar NHS, P.O. Box 426,
Independence, CA 93526
Fax: 760-878-2949

Special Guests:

Grace Nakano Seto
Joe Seto

Richard Furukawa
Irene Takenaka Furukawa

The Furukawas and Setos will share their family stories.

This workshop is a partnership between the National Japanese American Historical Society and the National Park Service Dissonant Voices. Funding is provided in part by a grant from the Japanese American Confinement Sites Grant Program, administered by the National Park Service. Additional funding provided by the National Park Foundation.

Application for Teachers Workshop
Enhancing Local and Regional Perspectives on Japanese American Incarceration

Participant Benefits

- Quality content lectures and curriculum demonstrations on Japanese-American internment
- Mid-morning snacks and lunch
- Extensive complementary curricula designed to meet CCSS and 3C Framework and other teaching resources
- $75 stipend for teachers who complete the workshop

Participant Responsibilities

- Complete institute reflections and evaluation
- Implement appropriate content and materials from the institute into relevant courses

To apply, fill in this form and send to Patricia Biggs:

Email: patricia_biggs@nps.gov

Mail: Manzanar NHS, 5001 Hwy 395, Independence, CA 93526

Fax: 760-878-2949

Questions, call Patricia at 760-878-2194 x 3316.

Please print

Name _____

Email address _____

Best phone number _____

Mailing Address _____

School _____ Credential _____

Grade/Subjects taught _____

Why I want to attend (If necessary, attach on separate sheet.)