

In Search of the Owens Valley

ILLUSTRATED PROGRAM AND BOOK SIGNINGS

SATURDAY AND SUNDAY
JUNE 22 AND 23

Join historian, author, and Owens Valley native Jane Wehrey on Saturday, June 22 at 1 PM, as she explores the many meanings of this bold and beautiful land that John Muir called “a country of wonderful contrasts.” Wehrey will draw from a rich photographic record to demonstrate how landscape and history in this “deepest valley” are woven together in legacies of conflict, community building, and inspired achievement.

The programs are free and open to the public at the Manzanar Visitor Center at 5001 Highway 395, Independence, CA 93526. For more information, call 760-878-2194 or visit our website at www.nps.gov/manz.

Jane Wehrey is also the author of Voices From This Long Brown Land: Oral Recollections of Owens Valley Lives and Manzanar Pasts and Manzanar. All are available at www.manzanarstore.com.

Wehrey will be available after the program and on Sunday, June 23 from 11 AM to 2 PM to sign copies of her most recent book, The Owens Valley. It contains over 200 images from the archives of the Eastern California Museum, Laws Museum, Manzanar National Historic Site, and other collections. Notable photographers represented include Ansel Adams, Andrew Forbes, and Toyo Miyatake.
