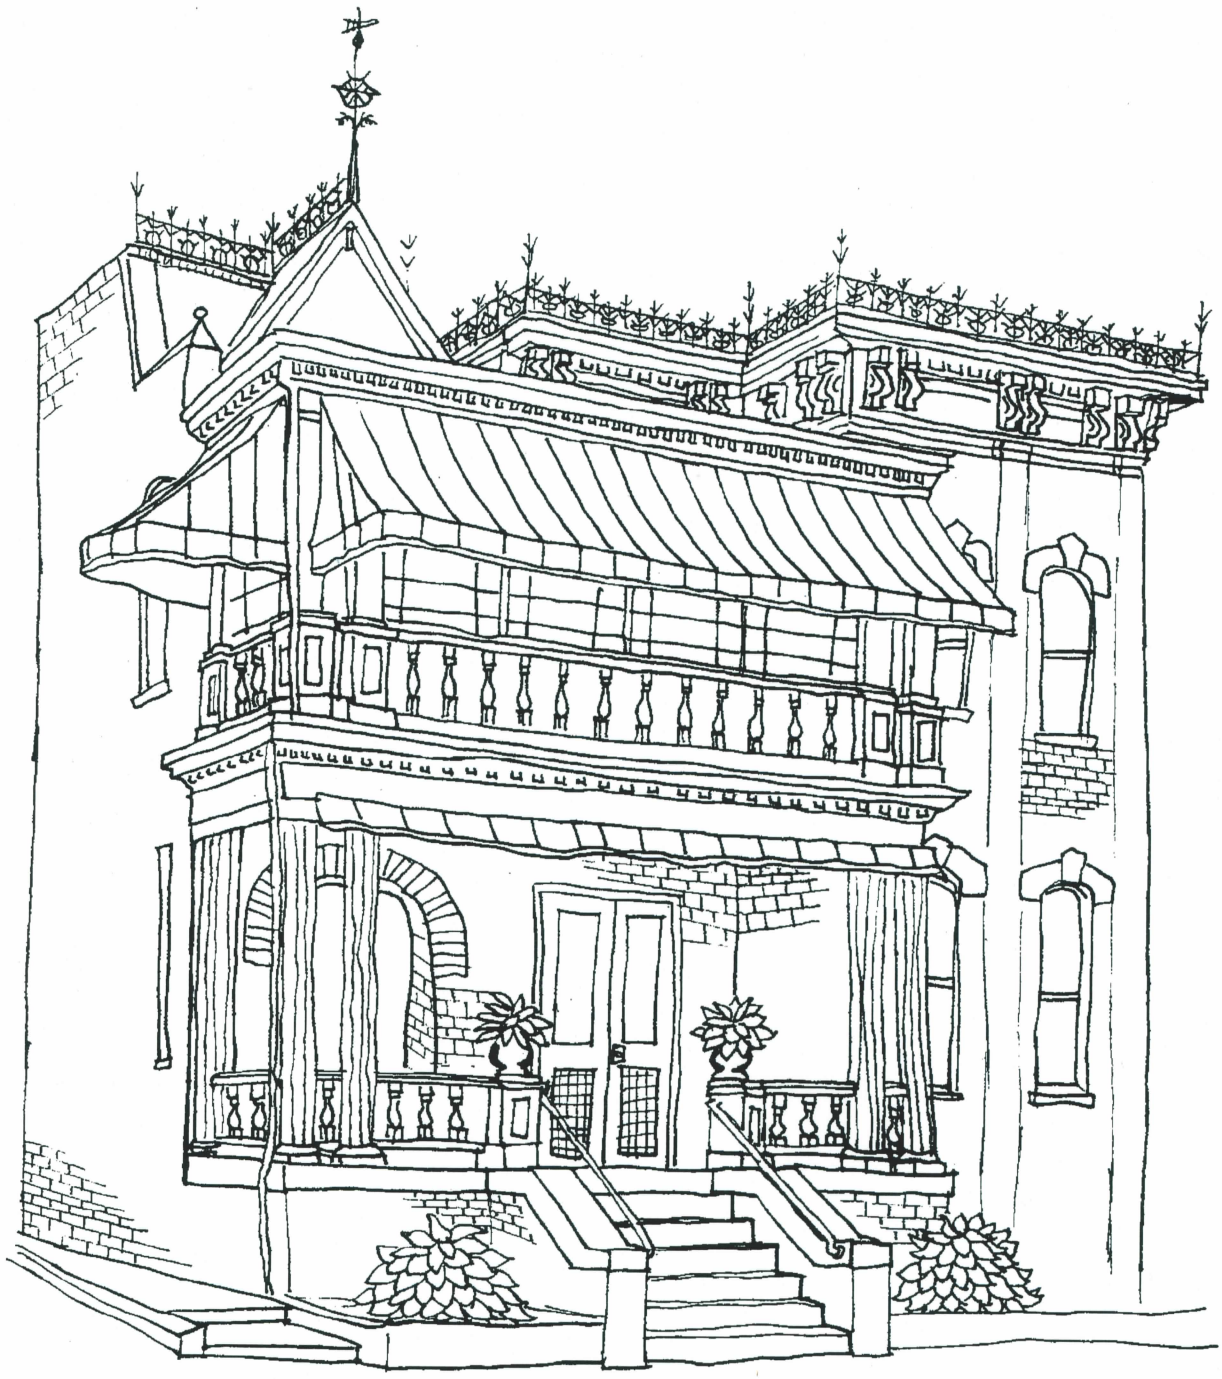
Maggie L. Walker

U.S. Department of the Interior
National Park Service

Maggie L. Walker National Historic Site



Maggie Walker purchased her home at 110 ½ Leigh Street in 1904 for her family. Mrs. Walker was very proud of her home and her possessions. They reflected her status as a prominent black woman leader. Walker lived in the home with her family until her death in 1934. The home became a National Historic Site in 1978 and stands as a place of inspiration for all.