About the
Maggie L. Walker Youth Summer Leadership Institute
At Maggie L. Walker National Historic Site

The Maggie L. Walker Youth Summer Leadership Institute is a two week experiential program for youth interested in developing leadership skills and in participating in community service projects. It is open at no cost to students ages 14-18 in the greater Richmond area. The program is designed to guide the development of the leadership skills in youth through discussion, lectures, field trips, and the opportunity to meet local and national leaders. Enhance your leadership skills through classroom discussions, peer mentoring activities, and forays out into the community while earning volunteer service hours with the National Park Service!

Program Dates: Weekdays, Monday, July 2 through Thursday, July 12, 2012 (No program on Wednesday, July 4);

Graduation Ceremony, Saturday, July 14, 2012

Time: 9am – 2pm daily

Location: Maggie L. Walker National Historic Site, 600 North Second Street,
Richmond, VA, 23219

Program Sponsors: The National Park Service, the Maggie L. Walker Civic Society at the Maggie L. Walker Governor's School, and the National Park Foundation Park Stewards Program
