

Youth Quail Hunt

October 6 - 7, 2012

2011 Youth Quail Hunt Participants

Who can participate?

- All youth of legal hunting age up to 18 who have completed a hunter safety class and have the appropriate hunting license.
- Parents or guardians are encouraged to attend but cannot hunt.
- Youth will be paired with an experienced hunter who will guide youth in tracking and harvesting these elusive gamebirds.

What activities are included?

- Hunt with a guide all day Saturday: exact schedule to be determined. Sunday hunting is on your own.
- Practice hunting and wilderness safety.
- Learn more about Gambel's quail and apply this knowledge in the hunt.
- Learn field care and dressing of harvested game.
- Tour the Safari Club International's Sensory Safari exhibit trailer.
- Rangers will provide talks, tours, and camp activities.

What about meals?

- Saturday breakfast of biscuits and gravy, sausage and fruit is included.
- Saturday dinner of hamburgers, hotdogs, and (hopefully) quail is included.
- Bring your own lunch for Saturday and all meals for Sunday.

Where?

- Black Canyon Group Campground at Hole-in-the-Wall, Mojave National Preserve
- Directions: 20 miles north of I-40 on Essex and Black Canyon Roads.
- No hookups; water and pit toilets available.

How do I sign up?

- Register at www.nps.gov/moja.planyourvisit/youthquailhunt.htm
- Space is limited to the first 25 youth to register. Late registrants will be placed on a waiting list.
- Shotguns and ammunition can be made available for your use upon request.

For More Information

Mojave National Preserve

760 252-6100

Rob Blair

Fish & Game Commission

760 928-2564

Cliff McDonald

760 449-4820

