

The front of the postcard should have a picture.

The back of the postcard should have an address and the information they are writing about.

Postcard Template

The postcard template is enclosed in a large rectangular border. On the left side, there are 12 horizontal lines spaced evenly down the page, intended for writing a message. On the right side, a vertical line runs from the top to the bottom of the postcard area. In the upper right corner of this area, there is a square box for a stamp. Below the stamp box, there are three horizontal lines for writing an address.
