Morristown Past and Present

Historical Collections

Morristown National Historical Park has over 500,000 artifacts in its museum, archives, and library collections. While the overall collection emphasizes the Colonial and Revolutionary era, the rare book and manuscript collections document the history of leading families from the 17th to 20th centuries. The park’s cultural resources office houses regular research. See the virtual museum at www.morristownnhmuseum.blogspot.com.

Planning Your Visit

The park grounds are open daily 8 am to sunset. Park building hours and days of operation vary seasonally. Before you visit, please call or check the website for updated schedules of park hours, Ford Mansion tour times, and other activities. The park is closed on Thanksgiving, December 25, and January 1.

Accessibility

We strive to make our facilities, programs, and services accessible to all. For information, ask a ranger, check at the visitor center, call 973-539-2816, or visit our website.

Stay Safe, Protect the Park
