

Political Motives and Personal Values Handout #3

Part I: Political and Personal Motives – A Soldier’s Stationary

Directions: Examine each piece of historic stationary located in the first column of this chart. As you examine the stationary, identify images, icons, and picture. Finally, speculate on the deeper meaning of this images, icons and pictures. What does this person value?

Historic Stationary From Jacob L. Bechtel	Images/Icons Identified	What does he value?
Martin Scott, Battery, D. 6  near Fort Alexandre  May 6th 1862 Camp on James  July 1st  Miss Candie,  Dear  undoubtedly have  best friend

Part II: Political and Personal Motives – A Soldier’s Belongings

Directions: Examine each object found on a soldier or with personal belongings located in the first column of this chart. As you examine the objects and photographs, identify it. Finally, speculate on the deeper meaning of this objects and pictures. What does this person value?

Personal Affects	Image/Icon Identified	What does he value?
Letter Transcribed To Mr. James Cariker Dear Sir I avail myself of the optunity of writing you a few lines to inform you that I am well at present and I do hope that those few lines will find you enjoying the same blessing. Jim I received your letter and it was received with a very glad welcome

This May the 9. 1862 to Mr James Carter
Dear Sir I avail myself of this opportunity of writing you a few lines to inform you that I am well at pres ent and I do hope that those few lines will find you enjoying the same blessing I recivd your letter and it was recivd with a very glad welcome by me I am very sorry to hear that you did not get a letter I wrote to you some time ago I oftener think of you and think if I shal ever see you again on earth you make write I like to hear from you if I cant see you by mee. Jim I am very sorry to hear that you did not get a letter... I oftines think of you and think if I shal ever see you again on earth... I am true to you for I cant love no other one but you ...Think think of me Jim and write to me agin soon... till deth your very respectfully from your trulove.

Meiss. J. Whaley

