In 2003 Congress designated the Reserve area to protect the National Mall from being overbuilt. The Reserve is a "substantially completed work of civic art," and no new or unapproved memorials or visitor centers may be added.

THE NATIONAL PARK SERVICE IS UNDERTAKING A MAJOR PLANNING EFFORT TO IMPROVE HOW YOU EXPERIENCE THE NATIONAL MALL - AMERICA'S TREASURE

- Because the National Mall is situated in the center of our nation's capital, it is the place where we celebrate our American heritage, express our civic pride, and demonstrate our First Amendment rights.
- The National Mall symbolizes our nation and our freedoms and its appearance should reflect its importance.

THE NATIONAL PARK SERVICE IS COMMITTED TO CONTINUALLY PROTECTING AND PRESERVING AMERICA'S NATIONAL PARKS, INCLUDING YOUR NATIONAL MALL.

- More than 25 million people use the National Mall each year, and it is a huge challenge to keep up with the tremendous wear and tear that this causes.
- Our goal is to care for your National Mall - its monuments, memorials, park and recreation spaces. People today as well as future generations should be able to experience this great and beautiful American space. It is also our mandate to ensure that this space remains open and accessible to all.

WE NEED YOUR INPUT. HELP US IMPROVE YOUR NATIONAL MALL EXPERIENCE.

- There are lots of ways to get involved. Share your opinions in-person and online. Help preserve the past and create a great future for the National Mall. Visit www.nps.gov/nationalmallplan.
