

Civil War Program at the Natchez Trace Parkway

Date: Saturday, February 11

Location: Natchez Trace Parkway
Visitor Center, milepost
266 near Tupelo, MS

Time: 10:00 a.m.

Discover what life may have been like for a member of the US Colored Troops (USCT) during the Civil War. In celebration of Black History Month, a ranger in USCT dress will present “Will They Fight,” giving families the opportunity to hear about the challenges African-American soldiers faced. Visitors can also see a soldier’s equipment and watch a non-firing musket demonstration.
