Bear Paw Battlefield is the site of the last battle of the Nez Perce War of 1877. The battlefield is a part of Nez Perce National Historical Park and Nez Perce (Nimiipuu) National Historic Trail.

Battle and Siege

It is on September 5, 1877. The parade is led by a row, men and old. The Nez Perce are led by Chief Joseph, as he struggles to keep his people alive. In this journey, the Nez Perce are hunted by the U.S. Government as they try to escape to Canada. With family members, friends, and the land itself, the Nez Perce are determined to fight back. They are the last to surrender in a long line of battles, including the 1863 Wallowa campaign.

The Siege Ends

On October 5, Tom Hill, a Nez Perce warrior, describes the end of the siege. He says, "when we first met, we could not be in peace. We were in war with Colonel Miles and General Howard..." . The Nez Perce are then ordered to surrender their weapons.

Living in Exile

The Nez Perce War of 1877 led to a life of hardship for the Nez Perce people. Many of them were forced to leave their homeland and to live in exile. Today, they continue to struggle to maintain their culture and to honor their ancestors.
