The Nez Perce bands who refused to accept the 1855 treaty remained in their homeland for several years. In May 1863, however, with settlers clamoring for access to nontreaty lands, the US government called on the non-treaty Nez Perce to move onto a new, smaller reservation that the US Army would forcibly move them onto. The leaders of the non-treaty Nez Perce, Cayuse, and Palouse bands, including Young Joseph, Lookout Glass, and Tushokihedoomas, did not budge. For a favorable solution, but to no avail.
