APPENDIX
Additional Guidance
COMMERCIAL USE AUTHORIZATION

Does the National Park Service consider you a commercial entity?

Your organization is considered a commercial entity if you provide goods, services, activities, or other things to the public using National Park Service (NPS) lands and you receive any form of compensation for the things you provide. The NPS does distinguish between commercial and non-profit organizations. A non-profit organization is one that has been determined by the Internal Revenue Service to be exempt from federal income taxation as a nonprofit or not-for-profit organization under the terms of the Internal Revenue Code. If an organization can provide documentation that it will derive no taxable income from activities in the park, a CUA will not be required. However, a non-profit organization is required to obtain a Special Use Permit for the activity and pay any required associated cost recovery when engaging in activities on park lands.

What are the criteria for the Commercial Use Authorization?

First of all, does the activity fit the park? It must be appropriate to the mission of the park, compliment resource protection, visitor protection and interpretation goals, and not pose any potential for derogation of values or purpose for which the park was established. The activities must be consistent with the park's future plans as well as present operations. They should be compatible with the planning documents for the park.

The park will not normally limit the number of organizations that offer similar services or activities. However, the Superintendent will not issue more CUAs than are consistent with the preservation and proper management of park resources and values. If the demand for the activity is overwhelming, the NPS may establish controls. Some examples of controls include designation of areas for commercial use, or establishment of area carrying capacities or a reservation system. If needed, the NPS may also establish procedures to assure a balance between commercial and non-commercial use. Additionally, the park cannot guarantee that park facilities will be available every day for every CUA holder and may establish group size limitations.

Types of CUAs.

In-park services refer to an operation with annual gross receipts of not more than $25,000 from commercial services originating and provided solely within a park area.

Out-of-park services refer to the incidental use of park area resources by operations that provide commercial services originating and terminating outside of the park area. A CUA of this type does not authorize solicitation of customers, sales or payment for commercial services to take place within the park area – all of these activities must occur outside of the park area. Unlike a CUA for in-park services, there is no cap on the annual gross receipts that may be generated by the authorized services under an out-of-park CUA. Compensation or payment for services (even tipping) may not occur on NPS lands.

CUAs do not authorize the construction of structures on NPS lands, either temporary or permanent.

What costs are involved?

The cost for issuing a Commercial Use Authorization is $200.00, and the authorization is in effect for one year. Short-term CUAs are available to long-distance entities for a three-month period at a cost of $50.00.

If the NPS incurs costs as a result of the authorized activities, the CUA holder is held responsible for reimbursement of those costs. For group use or special events other than authorized on an approved CUA, the CUA holder obtains a Special Use Permit and pays the same application/administrative charge and monitoring costs as other special event permittees.

If the activity has a potential for resource disturbance or damage, the NPS may require the CUA holder to post a refundable performance bond. The bond is set at an amount adequate to cover the cost of cleanup or repair of damage to resources, including personnel or contract costs. At the end of the authorization year, the bond is returned if it was not needed.

What is involved in the CUA?

Each Commercial Use Authorization includes the following provisions:

Copy of Certificate of Liability Insurance coverage is required with the United States of America named as Additionally Insured.

The CUA holder must meet all state, county and local agency requirements for permits, licenses and business operations. All food and beverage services must meet public health standards.

CUA holder is required to provide IRS taxpayer identification number on the CUA application.

The NPS requires prior approval of out-of-park advertising for activities to occur on park lands. The CUA holder shall not use advertising that attempts to portray them as agents of the NPS, or to use NPS symbols, seals, or other items of identity.

Solicitation and commercial advertising is prohibited on park lands, including hanging or posting signs, banners and flyers.

The organization/CUA holder will provide the superintendent a statement of its monthly gross receipts, visitor use statistics and resource impact assessments.

Go to: <http://www.nps.gov/neri/planyourvisit/upload/4-CUA-Monthly-Use-Reporting-Form.pdf> to print the report form.

The NPS will designate an individual to whom the CUA holder will report any accidents, injuries or damages related to the authorization. The NPS liaison will be the individual providing the CUA holder with NPS emergency or site closure information.

The CUA holder will provide a method for NPS field personnel to quickly and easily identify the CUA holder's staff when on NPS property.

Some activities authorized under a CUA must be scheduled in advance to avoid conflict with other park uses.

The CUA will indicate the areas of the park in which the CUA holder may conduct activities and the types of activities covered in the CUA.

What are some examples of activities which may be permitted under a Commercial Use Authorization?

IN REPLY REFER TO:

Effective: 01/2008

SUBJECT: New River Gorge National River has established that the following criterion will be utilized when reviewing alternative climbing guide certification and determining its equivalency to the American Mountain Guides Association (AMGA) single pitch instructor level.

Organizations applying for recognition as a climbing instructor certifier must provide training materials, such as course syllabus or textbook, for evaluation by the park's rock climbing program manager to ensure the course of instruction covers three primary areas: 1) the organization applying for certification equivalency approval will certify in writing climbing instructors have successfully completed the course curriculum and are capable of providing safe climbing instruction; 2) the course will include a minimum of 24 hours of instruction, plus an exam where proficiency is measured; 3) the course will cover contemporary baseline skills for safe climbing as follows:

KNOTS AND ROPE MANAGMENT

At a minimum the curriculum will include:

- Bowline, figure-eight and double figure-eight, overhand, figure-eight follow-through, water knot, double fisherman's, munter, and prussic.
- Instruction in what knots need to be "backed-up".

BELAYING AND DEVICE TYPES

- An overview of intermediate, slick, grabbing, and locking belay devices. Examples: figure-eight, ATC, Gri Gri, etc.
- The proper use and operation of the chosen device in order for the device to be effective.

ANCHOR POSITION, ASSESSMENT AND SYSTEMS

- Creating sound anchors that will be used as workstations.

What we are looking for:

- Setting the anchor directly above the climb.
- Sound placements of the anchor.
- Anchor system distributes the load equally.
- Anchor system has redundancy (if any point in the system was to fail, there must always be another part that will take the load).
- The load is spread equally.

- Instruction includes the use of natural anchors (trees, rocks, etc) and artificial anchors (stoppers, camming devices, etc.).
- Safety aspect of loading a carabiner (three-way loading, loading a carabiner over an edge, cross loading, etc.).
- Overview of self-equalized and pre-equalized anchors.

BELAYING

- Instruction in top and bottom belays.
- Belays will include a back-up (catastrophe knot, back-up belayer).

RAPPELLING

- Back-up belay using a separate belay line or “fireman’s belay”.
- The use of a “releasable” rappel.
- Safety considerations (loose items, clothing, etc.).

ASCENDING TO ASSIST CLIMBERS

- Ascending a single or double strand rope using friction hitches.
- Counter ascending a rope to rescue/assist a climber.

THE USE OF PULLEYS AND RAISING SYSTEMS TO RESCUE OR ASSIST A CLIMBER

ADDITIONAL TOPICS OF INSTRUCTION

- Inspecting equipment and when it should be replaced.
- Environmental concerns (lightning, rock falls, etc.).
- Promoting “leave no trace”.

In order to limit impact to the Bridge Buttress climbing area, climbing trips will be limited to a maximum of fifteen (15) individuals per trip, including the guide(s), with a guest-to-guide ratio not to exceed four (4) guests to one (1) guide. The Bridge Buttress designated climbing area includes: The Ogre; The Pinnacle; North Bridge Wall; Central Bridge Wall; The Roc; South Bridge Wall; Bridge Buttress; Rock Shelter Cave; Overlook Buttress; The Rostrum. Two groups of fifteen may climb in the Bridge Buttress Climbing Complex at the same time as long the two groups are climbing separately, with one group being in The Pinnacle climbing area and the other group being in any of the other climbing areas of the Bridge Buttress Climbing Complex. In order to limit the impact to all other designated climbing areas, climbing trips will be limited to a maximum of ten (10) individuals per trip, including the guides(s), with a guest-to-guide ratio not to exceed four (4) guests to one (1) guide. Guest count will include individuals in the group watching the climbing activity. Operators are limited to four trips per day park-wide (with two groups of fifteen climbing at the same time at the two separate climbing areas in the Bridge Buttress Climbing Complex, as outlined above, being considered one trip). Groups accessing designated climbing areas must be actively involved in rock climbing/rappelling activities and not utilizing the climbing access areas for guided/group hiking.
