North Cascades National Park Service Complex

Interpretive Ranger Programs

Friday

8:30 pm Evening Program– Super Stars

Where: International Point Amphitheatre

Ross Lake is a great location to view the Perseid meteor shower which peaks next week. Join the rangers for some tips on what to look for in our night sky and learn how parks are helping to protect nightscapes.

Saturday

10 am Jerry's Ranger/Junior Ranger Program – What's Bugging You?

Where: International Point Amphitheatre, 45-minute program

Join us to learn about our most abundant and easily observed wildlife. Insects are so small we often overlook them, but they lead fascinating lives and are vital to balance our ecosystem.

4:30 pm Nature Talk – Goat Notes

Where: Winnebago Flats camping area (North Cascades NP)

Mountain goats are a symbol of the rugged terrain of the North Cascades. Their ability to thrive in such a landscape is evidence of remarkable adaptations. Join the rangers for insight into what makes these ungulates so well adapted to these mountains.

8:30 pm Evening Program – Traditions of the Nlaka'pamux

Where: International Point Amphitheatre

Join us for a special evening with guest speaker Kevin Duncan of the Nlaka'pamux First Nation. Kevin will share some of the culture and traditions of the Nlaka'pamux, one of the peoples who traditionally used the resources of the Skagit Valley.

Sunday

10 am Jerry's Ranger/Junior Ranger Program – Survive and Thrive

Where: International Point Amphitheatre, 45-minute program

Join the Rangers for some fun games to learn what animals and plants need to live, grow and reproduce. Will you survive and thrive?

1 pm Nature Talk – Reading the Signs

Where: Winnebago Flats camping area (North Cascades NP)

We may not see all the animals of the North Cascades while camping and hiking, but many of them leave behind signs of their passing. Join the rangers to learn some of the clues you can look for and what they can tell you. Bring your chairs.

8:30 pm Video – “Return to Wildness”

Where: International Point Amphitheatre

Join the rangers for a viewing of “Return to Wildness.” This 25-minute video displays awe-inspiring scenery of the North Cascades and the inspiration of wilderness.
