

Skagit Valley Provincial Park North Cascades National Park Service Complex Interpretive Ranger Programs

Friday

9 pm Evening Program – Place of Refuge

Where: International Point Amphitheatre

The unique place names of the North Cascades connect us to our past, tie us to the present and inspire us for the future. Join the rangers to hear the stories behind the names of some of the special places within our parks.

Saturday

10 am Jerry's Ranger/Junior Ranger Program – Wet and Wild Watersheds

Where: International Point Amphitheatre, 45-minute program

Come join a special guest presentation by the Hope Mountain Centre for Outdoor Learning and enjoy some fun, and wet, activities exploring how water moves through our landscape.

5 pm Nature Talk – It's Electrifying

Where: Winnebago Flats camping area (North Cascades NP)

Come join a special guest presentation by the Hope Mountain Centre for Outdoor Learning for a hands-on look at hydro-electric power in the Skagit Valley and the challenge of meeting humanity's need in the future. Bring your chairs.

9 pm Evening Program – Bears

Where: International Point Amphitheatre

Join us for a special evening with guest speaker Anne Braaten, North Cascades National Park bear biologist, as she shares her insight on the ecology and behavior of one of our most popular, frequently seen, and sometimes feared large mammals.

Sunday

10 am Jerry's Ranger/Junior Ranger Program – Home Sweet Home

Where: International Point Amphitheatre, 45-minute program

Where do you live? In a house? An apartment? A tent (at least for the weekend)? What about the animals of the Skagit? Where do they make their homes? Join us for this interactive program about the interesting and sometimes surprising place that animals choose to live.

1 pm Nature Talk – Trash Talk

Where: Winnebago Flats camping area (North Cascades NP)

Pack it in, pack it out and don't burn it in the fire...Why are we so concerned with where your garbage ends up? Join the rangers for a challenging talk about trash. Bring your chairs.

9 pm Video – "The Last Grizzly of Paradise Valley"

Where: International Point Amphitheatre

Join the rangers for a viewing of "Return to Wildness." This 25-minute long video displays awe-inspiring scenery of the North Cascades and the inspiration of wilderness.
