CASCADE RIVER ROAD TO REMAIN OPEN

Sedro Woolley, WA - August 27, 2014 - Originally schedule to be closed to all vehicle and pedestrian traffic on September 8 for much needed repairs, Cascade River Road will remain open as long as weather permits. The repair, which will consist of installing a sixty foot long concrete “box culvert” with a debris rack to prevent culvert plugging at the crossing of Boston Creek, will be delayed until next year.

To get information on trail and road conditions within the North Cascades National Park Service Complex, please contact the Wilderness Information Center at 360-854-7245, the Golden West Visitor Center at 509-699-2080, ext. 14 or any park ranger station.
