

Fort Henry and Fort Donelson Campaign

Federal movements show arrows in BLUE
Confederate fortifications shown in RED

February 6
Federal troops proceed to Fort Henry; Federal gunboats fire on fort; most Confederate defenders escape overland to Fort Donelson; Fort Henry and Fort Heiman captured

February 4-5
Federal troops land 4.5 miles downstream from Fort Henry; Confederates abandon Fort Heiman

February 7-13
Federal gunboats travel from Fort Henry on Tennessee River to Cumberland River

February 12
Federal reinforcements land downstream and proceed 5 miles to Fort Donelson

February 14
Federal gunboats disabled by river battery cannon

February 16
Unconditional surrender of Fort Donelson after escape of some troops upriver

February 15
Confederate troops attack Federal right flank

