

- Encampment Tour Stop
1▶
- Follow these signs for the self-guiding Encampment Tour.
- 1 Encampment Tour stop
 - Picnic area
 - Restrooms (wheelchair-accessible)
 - Wheelchair-accessible
 - Food service
 - Reconstructed hut
 - Visitor parking
 - Encampment Tour
 - Trail
 - Historic trace (road)
 - Gravel road
 - Railroad

Trails shown are only a few of the park's 35 miles of trails. Find a full trail map at the visitor center or on the park website.

Pawling Farm was one of the Continental Army commissaries and the major campsite of the army after the troops shifted to outlying locations on June 9, 1778.

Washington's troops arrived December 19, 1777, over Gulph Road from Gulph Mills, southeast of Valley Forge.