

Theodore Roosevelt Birthplace

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

National Historic Site
New York

Guess who's turning 150!

One of America's most beloved presidents will be 150 years old in October and everyone is invited to come help the National Park Service celebrate Theodore Roosevelt's milestone birthday.

As part of the festivities, Theodore Roosevelt Birthplace National Historic Site will hold an open house on Sunday, Oct. 26 complete with:

- A one-man play by Roosevelt re-enactor Joe Wiegand
- Rough Rider re-enactors with horses period arms
- A buffalo soldier re-enactor, pony ride and exhibition
- Children's activities including a Junior Ranger program, face painting and button making
- Display featuring National Park Service equipment
- A few special birthday giveaways.

Then on Monday, Oct. 27, "The Rise of Theodore Roosevelt" and "Theodore Rex" author Edmund Morris and his wife, Sylvia, will give a presentation on the president whose persona remains larger-than-life. Seating is limited and reserved on a first-come-first-serve basis.

For more information, please call (212) 260-1616.

All activities and presenters are subject to change.
