Re: Removal from the National Register of Historic Places for Property in Vermont

Dear Mr. Loether:

The Dog Team Tavern, formerly located at 1338 Dog Team Tavern Road in New Haven, VT, was listed in the National Register of Historic Places on November 21, 2002. It was severely damaged by fire in September 2006, and the building was subsequently demolished. According to the National Register regulations, a property can be removed from the National Register of Historic Places for the following reason:

“The property has ceased to meet the criteria for listing in the National Register because the qualities which caused it to be originally listed have been lost or destroyed, or such qualities were lost subsequent to nomination and prior to listing.”

Because the building is no longer standing, it does not meet the criteria for listing in the National Register of Historic Places and has no historic integrity. As such, it meets the above requirement.
