Obion County, Tennessee

The Colored Hotel located at 208 Nash Street in Union City, Obion County, Tennessee was listed on the National Register on August 11, 2008. This two-story, concrete block building was built ca. 1945 and was listed under Criterion A for its local significance in both social history and ethnic history. The hotel was demolished September 28, 2015. As a result, the Colored Hotel has lost the significance for which it was listed and no longer retains integrity of setting, location, design, materials, workmanship, association and feeling. Therefore, the Colored Hotel should be removed from the National Register.
