Davidson County, Tennessee

Fort Nashborough is located in Riverfront Park on First Avenue in downtown Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee and was listed on the National Register of Historic Places on July 13, 2011. This multi-building replica of the circa 1780 fort complex constructed by James Robertson and his band of settlers was built in ca. 1930 and substantially reconstructed in 1962. The complex was listed under Criteria A and C for its local significance in architecture, conservation, and recreation/entertainment. The fort was demolished on June 19th and 20th of 2015. As a result, Fort Nashborough has lost the significance for which it was listed and no longer retains integrity of setting, location, design, materials, workmanship, association and feeling. Therefore, Fort Nashborough should be removed from the National Register.
