

Olympic National Park Glacier Repeat Photographs Anderson and “Linsley’s” Glaciers

2010

Though the perspective is slightly different, this pair illustrates the contrast between the extensive retreat and thinning of the south-facing Anderson glacier (right) and the relative stability of the higher “Linsley” glacier on the left. 1960 Louis Kirk, Olympic National Park archives OLYM 617; 2010 Janis Burger, Olympic National Park.
