WILDERNESS (BACKCOUNTRY) OPERATIONS

2. Wilderness Camping Permit. Trip leaders/guides of each backpacking outing will possess an Olympic National Park Wilderness Camping Permit and his/her signature thereon will designate him/her as the responsible person with respect to complying with all park rules and regulations. This is a separate permit from the SUP. Payment for the Wilderness Camping Permit will be made when the permit is issued.

a. Each trip leader/guide will obtain a Wilderness Camping Permit for each hike by contacting the WIC either by phone or in person during normal working hours after March 31. There are areas where advanced reservations are required or recommended. These will be accepted by fax or postal mail beginning April 1. Phone reservations are no longer accepted. A reservation form can be found at <http://www.nps.gov/olymp/planyourvisit/upload/wilderness-permit-reservation-form.pdf>. Please see our Wilderness Trip Planner Map for locations where Wilderness Camping Permits are limited. For locations where they are not limited, advanced reservations are not available, but Wilderness Camping Permits can be set up for the season starting April 1.

These can also be obtained upon arrival at the park through the WIC in Port Angeles. At the time of registration, trip leaders/guides must identify themselves as operating under an SUP. All Wilderness Camping Permits must be obtained through the WIC. Self-registering at trailheads or ranger stations is not allowed. Any changes to your Wilderness Camping Permit must be approved in advance by the WIC. Failure to comply will cause a violation of your SUP.

b. Before the WIC will take your wilderness reservation or issue a Wilderness Camping Permit, your SUP must be finalized and trip leader/guide resumes and all required certifications received by the WIC and the Park's Concession Office. Guide certifications must be mailed, faxed, or emailed to these two offices no later than 30 days prior to the first day of your hike. Each trip leader/guide will carry a copy of all required certifications with them while guiding in the park. The WIC will not make any phone calls, arrange last minute faxes, nor make special arrangements of any kind if the trip leaders/guides arrive unprepared. Failure to provide guide certifications as required above will be grounds for revoking the SUP for the rest of the year and renewal will not be allowed for one full year.

c. Clients participating in SUP conducted outings may not register separately for Wilderness Camping Permits, but are covered under the Wilderness Camping Permit issued to the permittee as long as the group is camping together. Clients who are not camping with the trip leader/guide (SUP or CUA holder) will be required to get a separate Wilderness Camping Permit through the WIC. For example: packer doing a drop camp and is not camping with the clients, therefore, the clients will need their own Wilderness Camping Permit.

d. The WIC may be contacted for assistance with trip planning, regulations, and Leave No Trace by calling (360) 565-3100. Trail conditions are posted on the park's website at <http://www.nps.gov/olymp/planyourvisit/wilderness-trip-planner.htm>

b. In all other park areas, the holder will use approved animal resistant food containers ("bear canisters") for food storage for all trips when the duration of the trip is four (4) nights or fewer. If the duration of the trip is greater than four (4) nights, a combination of bear canisters and park bear wires may be used. In areas without bear wires, all food and scented items that do not fit in bear canisters (minimum one per person) must be suspended a minimum of 12 feet from the ground and 10 feet out from the nearest tree trunk.

c. Bear canisters are available for loan at the park's WIC and at most ranger stations. A $3 suggested donation per container helps continue the program.

- d. See <http://www.nps.gov/olymp/planyourvisit/wilderness-food-storage.htm> for additional information on food storage.
5. Trip leaders/guides must have experience in the wilderness (backcountry) areas in which they guide.
