

SWBRPP FY2022 Funded Projects

Arizona Sonoran Desert Museum

Aquatic Conservation and Education Quitobaquito/Rio Sonoyta Endangered Species $49,074

Padre Island National Park

Assessing Trophic Ecology of Kemp's Ridley Sea Turtles Through Bi-national Partnerships with Padre Island National Seashore to Inform Declining Population Growth
$35,689

Colorado State University

Telling O'odham Stories at Quitobaquito
$49,804

Rio Bravo Restoration

Seven cooperative, binational river trips on the Rio Grande/Rio Bravo
$37,697

Sky Island Alliance

Supporting CONANP to Develop the Conservation and Management Program of the APFF Bavispe: Phase 2 $49,348

University of Arizona

Fire impacts on Madrean habitats and bird communities and implications for park management: A binational research and sister-park training proposal
$44,530

Center for Big Bend Studies

Big Bend National Park River Corridor Archeological Survey
$48,881

Sky Island Alliance

Border Wildlife Study: A Binational Assessment of Border Disturbance and Recovery $44,308

University of Idaho

Demographic and genetic monitoring of the endangered Sonoran pronghorn in Organ Pipe Cactus National Monument, Mexico, and surrounding areas using fecal DNA sampling $49,861

Saguaro National Park

Spring Forward: Developing Best Practices for Springs in National Parks Across the US-Mexico Border

$48,971

Bernalillo County

Community Stewardship in Action: Gutiérrez Hubbell House on El Camino Real de Tierra Adentro hosts the 2023 TICRAT

$49,996

University of Arizona

Trail camera monitoring in Chiricahua National Monument for jaguar detection. Year 2

$41,017

Bandelier National Monument

Expand Bird Banding Project into Mexico

$20,000